

MDFAWL GOOD GUYS PLEDGE

I pledge to be a GOOD Guy. I pledge that for the next 24 months I will be an agent for measurable change. I pledge to complete three tasks set forth in the GOOD Guys Monday-Morning To-Do List. I pledge to take the steps necessary to measurably affect the careers of the talented women attorneys in my firm. I pledge to counsel, mentor, sponsor, support and promote deserving women lawyers to ensure their future success. I pledge to work to increase the percentage of women serving as equity partners, members of compensation committees, lead counsel on trials and other matters and women serving as points of contact with firm clients. I pledge not to be dissuaded by cynicism, apathy, entropy or the negative opinions of others. I pledge that nothing is impossible – because impossible is nothing.
